What are the risks of investing?

The risk indicator is rated from 1 (low) to 7 (high). The rating reflects how much the value of the fund's assets goes up and down. A higher risk generally means higher potential returns over time, but more ups and downs along the way.

To help you clarify your own attitude to risk, you can seek financial advice or work out your risk profile at www.sorted.org.nz/tools/investor-profiler

Note that even the lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment, and there are other risks that are not captured by this rating.

This risk indicator is not a guarantee of a fund's future performance. The risk indicator is based on the returns data for the past 5 years' performance history ending 30 September 2026. While risk indicators are usually relatively stable, they do shift from time to time. The risk indicator will continue to be updated in future fund updates.

Notes

The Mint Growth Fund was formerly known as the Mint Diversified Growth Fund. Effective 3 August, Mint Asset Management issued a revised PDS for the Fund in which we made changes to the implementation of the Fund. These changes included a change to the implementation model, the composite benchmark, the currency hedging and the return objective. Due to these material changes, returns generated prior to 3 August 2026 may not be directly comparable to returns generated under the current investment approach.
